

Army National Guard

Army National Guard Overview

With the Army National Guard you will:

- Learn job skills that translate to the civilian world
- Get a degree with money for school
- Make bonds that last a lifetime and earn pride for life.
- Earn pay every day you serve in training, weekend drills, Annual Training, or deployment.

To join the National Guard without prior service, you must meet these mandatory requirements:

- Be between the ages of 17 and 35
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Be at least a junior in high school, or have a high school diploma or a GED certificate
- Achieve a minimum score on the ASVAB test
- Meet medical, physical and moral requirements

Career Training

Your interest healthcare, law or ministry can accelerate your career in the Guard.

Help heal heroes and start a medical profession career.

Become a JAG (Judge Advocate General) officer and defend those defending the country.

Serve as a chaplain and support the battle for well-being.

Or choose a career in Special Forces. Green Berets in the Army National Guard's 19th and 20th Special Forces Groups are all highly intelligent, highly trained professionals capable of reaching objectives by land, water and air. They cross behind enemy lines undetected, hunt down terrorists and train guerrilla armies.

North Carolina has a 20th Special Forces Unit

STEM IN THE ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

- Our modern age is defined by science, technology, engineering and mathematics. The National Guard is looking for future Soldiers who specialize in science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

- You may be a scientist or engineer seeking to serve or you might be an amateur tech guru with an ambition to level up on military-grade networks.

